JOY PEACE AND LOVE
Enjoy the Experience!

Join the World OF EMOTIONS

The Aldo Coppola Hair Therapy sensory oils collection was created to offer cosmetic rituals of positivity, energy and purity.

They use the evocative power of fragrances to stimulate emotional wellbeing: the power of aromachology is combined with the specific properties of the ingredients.

The way in which the active ingredients work further boosts and enhances the beneficial effects of the products and are the finest ingredients available in cosmetology today, the most effective, with the most amazing feel and touch on the hair.

Joy, Peace and Love rituals: cosmetic rituals to stimulate the positive emotions within us to emerge.

Say goodbye TO SILICONES!

Aldo Coppola Hair Therapy Sensory Oils are formulated with pelargonic acid, a natural derivative of sunflower seeds, blended with functional aromatic complexes. Through advanced production technologies, aromatic elixirs with extraordinary texture-enhancing and emollient properties are obtained from a natural and ethically managed raw material.

They leave the hair feeling ultra-light, soft and easy to comb, with a dry and delicately perfumed touch.

The sunflower - Helianthus annuus - is one of the most fascinating plant species, which is much appreciated today for its nutritional value and has been widely used in traditional medicine over the centuries.

From the sunflower seed oil, pelargonic acid is obtained, which is processed into a high-performance ester. The production system is designed following the circular economy model and the standards of green cosmetics.

Today, a perfect combination of nature and cosmetic innovation results in a weightless and non-greasy ingredient for skin and hair care. It is a biodegradable alternative to silicones with extraordinary sensory properties.

With the professional Hair Therapy rituals in the atelier, you can explore all the potential benefits of scalp and hair treatments. The pleasant delicacy of fragrances and enveloping textures combined with the skin massage technique help to restore feelings of well-being, relaxation and awareness. A world of positive emotions stimulates improved concentration on one's inner well-being.

GLASS IS Aldo Coppola's choice

Glass is a unique and versatile material, it has a magic nature as well: born in the heart of fire, it transforms from powder into solid material. Thanks to its refined polyhedric character, glass has gained its place in the exclusive luxury market. It is unaffected by time, guaranteeing the best possible conservation of its contents.

AN ECO-SUSTAINABLE PRODUCT, 100% RECYCLABLE

A caring approach to sustainability and environmental impact reduction are behind our decision to use glass, a choice that brings the idea of tradition together with innovation and design.
